

	Maple- Year 1	Chestnut- Year 2/3
Autumn Class text (s)	Peace At Last by Jill Murphy The Gruffalo and The Gruffalos Child by Julia Donaldson. Daily reads from chosen book set.	Variety of traditional tales- old and new versions. George's Marvellous Medicine by Roald Dahl The Magic Finger by Roald Dahl
Genre	Information	Narrative
Type	Labels, lists and captions	Traditional tales
Topic Link	Science	Science/Topic
Possible purpose and audience	Produce labels, lists and captions for science display.	Write own version of a traditional tale to read aloud to younger children.
Quality texts linked	Examples of labels, lists and captions.	'The Wolf's Story' by Toby Forward and Izhar Cohen
Genre	Narrative	Poetry
Type	Stories with predictable phrasing	Poetry
Topic Link	Forest school/Science	Link to Poetry week
Possible purpose and audience	Re-tell a story and write own story with new characters, to share with younger children.	Learn a poem to perform to school on Poetry Day.
Quality texts linked	'Going on a Bear Hunt by Michael Rosen 'Oh no George!' Chris Haughton	Range of poems.
Genre	Poetry	Information
Type	Poetry	Non-chronological report/Leaflet
Topic Link	Link to Poetry week	Geography
Possible purpose and audience	Learn a poem to perform to school on Poetry Day.	Create a leaflet about an animal from another country. (linked to topic) to share with Oak Class.
Quality texts linked	Range of poems.	Range of non- fiction books from library.
Genre	Narrative	Recount

Type	Stories with familiar settings	Diary entry
Topic Link	Science	History/ RE
Possible purpose and audience	Write a story inspired by The Tiger Who Came to Tea with different species but based in the familiar setting. These will be shared with their Year 5 buddies.	Children write a diary entry about a journey into space, as if they are an astronaut. Children write a diary entry about the Annunciation/birth of Jesus, as if they are Mary. (first person)
Quality texts linked	'The Tiger Who Came to Tea' by Judith Kerr	Information on space- websites and books.
Genre	Recount	Narrative
Type	Diary	Use of recurring language
Topic Link	RE	Advent -RE
Possible purpose and audience	Retell Jesus' birth through a diary entry by one of the animals using words to describe the five senses.	Create a story, using recurring language, to give as a Christmas gift.
Quality texts linked	Bible stories and stories with lead animals.	Harvey Slumfenburger's Christmas by John Burningham.